- › 4 women's field hockey (1981, 1985, 2013, 2014)
- › 3 men's soccer (1948, 1981, 2000)

All NCAA Division I national titles except the 1948 soccer championship, awarded by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America*

Football: Building a solid foundation.

The UConn football team returned to bowl play in 2015 at the St. Petersburg Bowl. The Huskies have played in six bowl games, including the 2011 Fiesta Bowl, and have won two conference championships since making the transition to the FBS in 2003.

One Pride.

A tradition of coaching outstanding student-athletes ensures UConn is a standout in Division I sports and fuels our academic spirit.

Home Field Advantage

UConn's modern athletic facilities include:

Werth Family UConn Basketball Champions Center

This 78,000 square foot on-campus facility opened its doors in fall 2014. The $36 million facility boasts practice gyms, locker rooms, coaches' offices, study areas, video rooms, and sports medicine and strength training spaces for our basketball teams.

The Mark R. Shenkman Training Center & Burton Family Football Complex

Shenkman, an 85,000- square-foot center with a two-story strength and conditioning area, is regarded as one of the best football practice facilities in the country. Burton houses coaches' offices, meeting rooms, equipment, a student-athlete lounge, study rooms, and sports medicine and video viewing areas.

Coming Soon: The Rizza Family Soccer Complex

Former UConn men's soccer student-athlete Tony Rizza '87 has pledged $8 million to transform our soccer stadium into a $24 million state-of-the-art soccer complex.

Our student-athletes focus just as hard on their books as they do on their games:

- › 13 UConn teams earned perfect NCAA Academic Performance Rate (APR) scores of 1000 for 2013-2014, including the National Champion men's basketball and field hockey teams.
- › 22 of the 24 teams have a four-year APR score of 970 or better as of 2013-2014, including four teams with perfect multi-year scores.
- › 235 UConn student-athletes were named to the American Athletic Conference 2014-15 All-Academic team.
